

Erasmus+ for study purposes 2020/2021

SELECTION CRITERIA

1 - Curriculum Assessment

a) CFUs gained

CFUs	Point
≤ 24	3
$\geq 25 \leq 58$	5
$\geq 59 \leq 88$	7
89	10

b) Average mark

Weighted average supplied by CeDia (+ any self-certifications)

For students enrolled on an LM [Master's Degree] course who have not yet taken any LM exams, the weighted average of marks awarded during the first degree course will be used, excluding the degree grade.

2 - Interview Assessment

Adequacy of organization and personal reasons	Max 8
Linguistic competence	Max 12

PREREQUISITES

- TTMI and/or LCM students must have at least passed the Language 1 or Language and translation 1 exam in the language area for which they are submitting an application.
- LM94 and/or LM37/38 students must have specialised in the language of the destination country since their first degree
- Linguistic skills required by each partner

PLEASE NOTE: Students who have already benefited from an Erasmus scholarship (even during previous degree courses) without gaining credits, may submit an application, but priority will be given to candidates who have not yet participated in the programme and who have listed the same organisation as a preference.

DOUBLE DEGREES

- Under the qualification recognition programme between the University of Genoa and the Université Côte d'Azur (UCA), the four 12-month scholarships at the University of Nice are reserved, in the first instance, for master's students participating in the aforesaid programme.
- Under the qualification recognition programme between the University of Genoa and Leuphana Universität Lüneburg, the five 10-month scholarships at Leuphana Universität Lüneburg are reserved, in the first instance, for master's students participating in the aforesaid programme.
